What our clients say about us

"Operating businesses in the Music, Technology and Media industries, you simply must have an expert "Go To Guy" you know will always deliver timely, accurate and specialist advice. Myles Murphy is my Go To.

His ability to make the seemingly (and often) complex, simple, particularly with regards to Intellectual Property and web based business, has saved my bacon once or twice. I enjoy his analyses, diatribe, banter and wit and as usual, when it's required, he comes through with the goods. Thanks Myles."
